DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-17 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Voigt (5588654).

Voigt teaches a main body (22), a window (24), two parallel pivots (70,72) inside the main body with knobs (88) and groove setting (area over the spindles where sheet 74 is placed, a drawing plan (74), a storage space in a drawer (40), a supporting device (14) to lift the main body, transparent plastic window (3:31-33), placing spaces (top surface 24 for placing pieces), game surface for playing numerous games including chess (4:44-48), game objects (Fig.3A-C, Fig.4), sheet 74 attached to spindles (4:18-19), and manually operated. Whereas Voigt does not expressly indicate sheet being cloth or paper. It is also well known in the art area to use paper or cloth for printing game surfaces. Further Voigt inherently teaches possibility of playing any kind of game on such apparatus.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 14 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Voigt in view of official notice.

Whereas Voigt does not expressly indicate sheet being cloth or paper. It is also well known in the art area to use paper or cloth for printing game surfaces as these materials are easily available.

One of ordinary skill in art at the time the invention was made would have suggested using paper or cloth for printing game surfaces.
